THE BREVITY BASKET.

Filled With Brief Mention of Many Minor Events of Yesterday.

THE REPUBLICAN JOB OFFICE is now ready in the new quarters specially prepared for it, at THE REPUBLICAN office, corner of Tenth and D streets, to fulfill all orders on the shortest notice for every class of legal, mercantile, and amusement printing—from the mammoth poster to the daintiest card—all executed in the best manner and in unique and elegant design. No job office in the city is better equipped than that of THE REPUBLICAN, and the best talent obtainable has been employed. The managers of THE REPUBLICAN now solicit from the many patrons of the paper their orders for this class of work, confident that perfect satisfaction will be given, and upon lower terms than elsewhere obtainable. Attention is called to the advertisement elsewhere.

E. Buckley and L. Pierce have been arrested for stealing $215 from the safe and money drawer of Daniel Toumey's saloon. The case will be tried to-morrow.

Next Monday 100 laborers will be put to work on the improvement of Garfield park, reservation No. 17, and the work will be continued until next winter.

Prof. Bischoff's next concert will take place on Friday night at the Congregational church. Miss Minnie Ewan and other vocalists will participate in the programme.

The basin of the fountain in front of the white house will be increased from thirty to forty feet in diameter and other improvements will be made. The work commenced yesterday.

Mr. Maximilian A. Benter and Miss Jennie H. Smith, both of this city, were quietly married yesterday morning at Trinity church, Third and C streets, the Rev. Dr. Thomas G. Addison officiating.

Prof. Edward C. Townsend, the popular elocutionist, and Mrs. Nellie S. McArthur, the distinguished soprano of St. Matthew's church, will render a charming programme on Saturday evening next in the parlors of the Spencerian Business college for the benefit of the Bethany free kindergarten, a school established by kind ladies for neglected little children.

GREAT game to-day—New York vs. National.

American Black Broadcloths and Doeskins.

Every dealer is supposed to have black cloths. That is so; but I wish to direct attention to these novelties. In purchasing black goods every buyer is obliged in some measure to rely upon the representations of the seller, and I wish to emphasize the decided merits of the above production, which I keep in stock, made up into garments to fit every one. Sample sent to any out of town address.

BASE BALL to-day 4:15 p. m.

The Ivy City Race Track.

While there are only a very few horses at the Ivy City track, the grounds are assuming a horsey appearance, and by May 15 will be everything that the most critical turf-lover could desire. The roads leading to the course have been greatly improved during the winter, and the walks to the stables and gates put into better condition than ever before. The only horses now on the ground are Mr. Looney's La Gloria, Carolus, and Comte, and Mr. W. T. Gleason's Keno. La Gloria is in splendid condition, and as lively as possible. Keno, Comte, and Carolus are all right, barring slight colds. W. P. Burch's stable, containing thirteen horses, left Augusta, Georgia, yesterday and will be at the track by Sunday. Among them are Col. Sprague, Jim Nelson, W. P. Burch, Bob May, Mittie B., and Helen Wallace. C. H. Pettengill will also be here with his horses in a few days, having left New Orleans last night. In his string are Fair Count and Duke of Monteban.

Davis & Hall's stable, containing Ella Warfield and six others, reached the track last night. Between now and May 1 about sixty horses will arrive.

A. BRENTANO & Co. keep in THE REPUBLICAN a list of the latest books on hand. A dozen of the very newest are added to the list as given to the morning. The current number of the "Canoeist," just received, is full of matter for those planning summer excursions.

Washington Patents.

The following patents were yesterday issued to district inventors: Samuel L. Bean, roller grinding mill; Edward J. De Smedt, hydraulic cement compound; John C. Lang, metallic bill file case; M. A. W. Michael, calendering machine; Roger Melling, halter; Parker H. Sweet, Jr., button fastener.

ESSEX COUNTY, VA.—Mr. James R. Micon, clerk, says: "I have used Brown's Iron Bitters and found it valuable for the purposes which it claims."

Marriage Licenses.

Marriage licenses were granted yesterday to W. W. Farrer and Clara B. Harvey, both of this city; Bernard J. Corley and Ella A. Cady, both of this city; W. P. Dove and Susanah Devers, both of Fairfax county, Va.; Thomas J. Holmes and Rose Y. Collins, both of this city.

JULIUS LANSBURGH'S

ANNOUNCEMENT

FOR

April 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, and 14.

A fortunate chance has placed it within our power to offer our patrons an exceptional opportunity to secure this week the finest line of

STRAW MATTING

At prices that will effect their rapid sale. Importers' necessities are our opportunities, and we have secured for cash 10,000 rolls. The assortment embraces fine lines in White, Red, Check, and Fancies; also a beautiful line of Plain High Colors. We have so many grades and prices that we will not attempt to enumerate them, but can assure our patrons that there is not a yard of the entire assortment than can be duplicated at any store in the city at the prices we shall name for them.
